EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

I. Classroom teaching activities (29 hours).

1. Lectures by professor: Most lectures will be given by the professor on the themes indicated in the syllabus with the help of the blackboard, PowerPoint presentations, videos and animation movies. All the material will be available on ADI.
2. Seminars and lectures by external guests (theory and case-based).
3. One-to-one tutorials: Each student may have personal interviews with the professor to help him/her with personal study and learning.
4. Evaluation: Exams, activities or tests to assess the successful accomplishment of the objectives.

II. Personal work (45 hours).

Students are expected to understand the foundational concepts introduced early in the course, as these are essential for understanding more advanced subjects presented later. Throughout the course, students will be required to integrate knowledge across different topics. Regular in-class tests and activities will be conducted. Therefore, it is crucial that students keep up with the coursework and students should dedicate consistent time outside of class to review and engage with the material on a daily basis.

1. Students must read the assigned reading for a subject before the lecture covering that topic. Being familiar with topics beforehand will allow students to get the most out of the lecture.
2. Students should conduct personal study using the professor's notes, notes taken in lectures and recommended books if needed.
3. Students have to prepare oral presentations in English.

ASSESSMENT

The overall final course grade is based on three components:

- Project: 50%
- In-class exercises and tests: 40%
- Attendance: 10%

There will be no final exam in this course. Instead, students will work in groups on a case project from the beginning of the term, which will be evaluated at the end of the course. The final assessment will consist of a graded pitch, with evaluation based on the quality of the content, communication skills during the oral presentation and the individual contribution of each team member. Consequently, all group members are required to actively participate in the presentation.

Students may earn up to an additional 10% for active in-class participation, at the discretion of the professors (golden point).

Criteria to pass the course

Final grades will be assigned on a scale from 0 to 10. Students who receive a final grade below 5 will not pass the course and will be graded as "Suspenso" (Fail). These students will have the opportunity to take an exam in June.

Students who fail to complete the project, do not attend classes and do not participate in in-class exercises, will not pass the course and will receive a grade of "No Presentado".

HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY

(Ethics Committee Provisions Against Plagiarism and Copying)

We value honesty. Without it, there can be no trust or any meaningful social relations. Therefore, the School expects honesty and fairness from all of its members: professors, non-academic staff, and students.

Dishonest behaviors will be sanctioned in accordance with the University Norms on Student Academic Discipline of August 2015, and include lying, cheating in exams, and plagiarism in written work. We take such violations seriously. Depending on their gravity, these offenses will be dealt with by the Professor in charge of the subject, by the Dean of Students, and in very severe cases, by the Vice President for Student Affairs.
