* Spelling and grammatical accuracy will be observed in all tasks and tests.

* Plagiarism is totally prohibited (including assignments totally or partially created using AI)

The School of Communication advocates the ethical use of documentary sources and ICT resources. For this reason, any and all forms of plagiarism are completely unacceptable in this subject. Plagiarism will be penalized across all tasks: projects, exercises and examinations. Plagiarism is defined as the whole or partial use of textual, graphic and/or audiovisual content produced by a third party without crediting the original author(s) (That includes generative AIs). Likewise, any form of fraud, deception, pretense or falsification aimed at improving one's academic results by illicit means will be penalized (including the use of an AI in order to improve your linguistic skills). Correct spelling and grammatical accuracy are to be observed in all written tasks and examinations. The evaluation of such activities take these requirements into account.

Academic projects that draw on books, articles, films, websites and/or any other documentary sources should include a complete list of works cited. The style guide of the American Psychological Association \(APA\) is to be followed in this regard.
