EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

I. CLASSROOM TEACHING ACTIVITIES

1. Lectures: Lectures are given by the professor on the themes indicated in the syllabus with the help of powerpoint presentations. The professor will post on ADI the power point presentation and some recommendations for further reading.

2. Weekly exercises: Each Friday at the end of class the professor will inform about the weekly exercise that the student has to write in his personal exercise diary.

3. Evaluation: There will be a midterm exam and a final exam (both multiple choice test) to assess the successful accomplishment of the course objectives.

II. PERSONAL WORK

Students must understand themes covered early in the course to be able to comprehend information presented later in the course, and will have to be able to integrate material learned throughout the course. Therefore, it is important that they do not fall behind and try to set aside regular times outside of class to work on the course material on a weekly basis.

Credits/hours distribution of the activities. 3 ECTS= 75 h (25 h/ECTS)

The tasks that students develop over the course are distributed as follows:

- 24 hours of lectures
- 10 hours of weekly exercise in the diary
- 39 hours of individual study
- 2 hours for the final exam

Total of 75 hours

ASSESSMENT

To calculate the final grade, course performance and grading will be determined as follows:

- Final exam.....50 %
- Midterm exam.....20 %
- Group project.....20 %
- Weekly exercise in diary....10%

Universidad de Navarra

There will be a final exam (multiple-choice test). Exams questions will be drawn directly from the textbook, lectures and class discussions.

The final exam will be held on the examination period of December.

Criteria to pass the course

- Students whose final grade is 5 points or more will pass the course. You need to pass the final exam before the final grade is calculated.
- Students whose final grade is below 5 points will not pass the course and will be graded as Suspense.
- Students who do not take the final exam will not pass the course and will therefore be graded as No presentado.

Exam review

- Students will be able to review the exams in an interview with the professor, after publication of the grades, in a day and place that will be indicated.

Evaluation in the extraordinary call

- For those who do not pass the course in May or did not take the exam (grades Suspense or No presentado) there will be an extraordinary multiple choice test exam in June which will account for 100% of the final grade (if the other activities do not increase the average grade).
